East India Army Agency,

Nos. 16, CORNHILL, & S. St. MARTIN'S PLACE,

CHARING CROSS.

APTAIN GRINDLAY has the pleasure to announce, that he has recently entered into arrangements for extending the advantages of his Agency Establishment, and affording to his Friends increased facilities for the transaction of EVERY DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS CONNECTED WITH INDIA AND THE COLONIES.

The great increase of engagements, which has resulted from the character of his Establishment, has induced him to receive Two Gentlemen as Partners, from whose exertions, attention and experience, combined with his own, he anticipates the greatest benefit to his correspondents.

CAPTAIN GRINDLAY avails himself of this oppor-tunity to offer his grateful acknowledgements for the extended and cordial support he has hitherto received.

Referring to the experience of the past as evidence of the zeal and care, which may be relied upon for the future, Captain GRINDLAY has only to aunounce, that the business will in future be carried on under the Firm of

And it is hereby enacted, that if any person holding or occupying land in the manner set forth in the preceding section shall refuse to engage for or to remove from the land within one month from the date on which he shall be called upon by the Collector to on which he shall he called upon by the Collector to enter into such engagement, or so to remove from it, by a written notice to be served personally, or at the residence of the owner or occupier, or to be stuck up on the premises, it shall be lawful for the said Collector to eject such person from the land so hold or occupied, and to take and hold possession of the same on the part of Government, to be disposed of in such manner as the Governor of Bongal may direct. Provided that no person so holding or occupying land who has filed or shall file his claim to exemption from assessment thereon before the day and year aforesaid, shall be liable to be so called upon by the Collector until his claim shall have been determined by competent authority.

year aforesaid, shall be liable to be so called upon by the Collector until his claim shall have been determined by competent authority.

IV. And it is horeby enacted, that all Magistrates and Police Officers shall aid and assist the Collector and his Officers in the due exercise of the power of ejectment conferred upon the said Collector by the foregoing Section, and any holder or occupier of land who shall resist or cause to be resisted the exercise of the said power, and any person who shall be aiding and abetting in such resistance, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be punished by fine not exceeding one thousand Rupees, or in default of payment of the fine, by imprisonment not exceeding six months.

V. And it is hereby enacted, that after the date on which this Act shall be in force in the settlements aforesaid, any person decirous of clearing and occupying waste and forest lands for the purposes of agriculture, shall—make application to the Collector of Land Revenue, who is hereby authorised to measure and assess the land, and to grant a lease for the same, in such manner, and under such conditions, as the Governor of Bengal may from time to time prescribe. And if, by reason of the density of the jungle or other obstacles, it should be found impracticable to cause immediate measurement: to be made of land so to be leased, it shall be competent to the Collector to issue to such applicant a permit or written authority, of which the number, date, and all essential particulars shall be entered in a Register to be kept for that purpose, to clear and occupy such land, subject to the conditions, on which a lease would have been granted. And on all land occupied under any such permit so issued, it shall be lawful for the Collector to demand and enforce the payment of rent in like manner as if a regular lease had been granted. And the Collector shall, with all practicable despatch, cause all land so occupied to be measured, and after such measurement the permit shall be called in and cancelled, and in lieu thereof a lease shall be issued the terms of ment the permit shall be called in and cancelled, and in lieu thereof a lease shall be issued, the term of which shall commence from the date of the permit. Provided, however, that it shall not be competent to a Collector to grant any lease of lands for a term exceeding twenty years, renewable on such conditions as the Governor of Bengal may direct for a further period of thirty years.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, that upon granting any lease under the Provisions of the foregoing Section, the Collector shall require the applicant to set up good and solid landmarks by which the boundaries of the ground to be occupied by him to set up good and solid landmarks by which the boundaries of the ground to be occupied by him shall be plainly defined; and such landmarks shall be set up to the satisfaction of the Collector to be certified by him on the back or other part of the lease, before the lease shall take effect, and it shall be a condition in every lease so granted that the lessee is to maintain all such landmarks in substantial repair. And if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Collector that potentials and such landmarks in substantial repair. boundaries And if it shall be proved to the satisfaction-of the Collector, that, notwithstanding this condition, such landmarks have not been kept in good repair, it shall be competent to the Collector to cause the proper repairs to be made, and to levy three times the cost of such repairs from the holder or occupier of the land, the amount to be levied by the process provided for the collection of rents. And the Collector or his Officers shall at all times have the right of free access to such land for the purpose of inspecting and directing the construction or repair of the landmarks; and any person resisting them in the exercise of this right or removing or defacing any landmark set up in coaformity with the provisions of this Act, shall be punished in the manner provided in the IV. Section of this Act.

VII. And it is hereby enacted, that all applications to hold or occupy lands for a term exceeding that specified in Section V., for the purpose of creeting houses or other durable works on such lands beyond the limits of the principal towns in the settlements aforesaid, shall be forwarded by the Collector to the Governor of Bengal, who will grant or reject such applications as in the independent access.
